Then wait. The river of life is now turning The wheel.

Little by little are we now learning To feel That all things work together sunshine and stormy weather of good; and joy will come at last, Then hope.

We never understand rightly
Just why
The sun does not always shine brightly

In our sky, Till we feel the sunshiny calm Tat follows the furious storm,

PART II.

CHAPTER XII.

COUNCIL OF WAR.

sharp and conical in figure.

land on the cast.

that would just clear the is-

"And now, men," said the captain, when all was sheeted home, "has any

"Yes, sir; Skeleton island they call

o the nor ard they calls the Foremast

all; there are three hills in a row run-nine south'ard-fore, main and miz-

"I have a chart here," says Capt.

chest, but an accurate copy, complete

of the red crosses and the written notes.

Sherp as must have been his supoy-

ance, Silver had the strength of mint

"Yes, sir," said he, "this is the spot,

current runs along the south, and then re us a help. You may go."

that I had overheard his council from the apple barrel, and yet I had, by this time, taken such a horror of his cruelty.

ficity and power, that I could ta, you will; and you'll get aloft them bills like a goat yourself

have ten toes, and you may lay et as soon as I was near enough to peak and not be overheard I broke out mediately: "Doctor, let me speak.

the cabin and then make some pretense to send for me. I have terrible news."

reckon. Ay, here it is: 'Capt.

-with the single exception

red all their names for it. The hill

one of you ever seen that land shead?"

And smile at the danger that's past.
Have faith.

Olive H. Hills, in Good Housekeeping I found them all three seated round the table, a bottle of Spanish wine and some raisins before them, and the doe- hesitated oncer tor smoking away, with his wig on his lap, and that, I knew, was a sign that he open, for it was a warm night, and you ould see the moon shining behind on the ship's wake.

"Now, Hawkins," said the squire, "you have something to say. Speak

Hawkins was wanted in the cabin,

alow and aloft, as I never ask to see it

The cheer followed-that was a matting for our blood.

I did as I was bid, and, as short as I could make it, told the whole details There was a great rush of feet across ony one of the three make so much as the deck. I could hear people tumbling up from the cabin and the fok's'le; and, a movement, but they kept their eyes upon my face from first to last. slipping in an instant outside my bar-rel, I dived behind the foresail, made "Jim." said Dr. Livesey, "take seat." And they made me sit down at table a double toward the stern, and came beside them, poured me out a glass of out upon the open deck in time to join wine, filled my hands with raisins, Hunter and Dr. Livesey in the rush for the weather bow.

There all hands were already con and all three, one afer the other, and each with a bow, drank my good health. gregated. A belt of fog had lifted al- and their service to me, for my luck and most simultaneously with the ap-pearance of the moon. Away to the "Now, "Now, captain," said the squire, "you southwest of us we saw two low hills, were right and I was wrong. I own about a couple of miles apart, and myself an ass, and I await your orrising behind one of them a third ders." and higher hill, whose peak was still "No

"No more an ass than I sir." reburied in the fog. All three seemed turned the captain. "I never heard of a crew that meant to mutiny but what showed signs before, for any man that much I saw almost in a dream. for I had not yet recovered from my had an eye in his head to see the mischief and take steps accordingly. But orrid fear of a minute or two bethis crew," he added, "beats me." fore. And then I heard the voice of "Captain," said the doctor, Capt. Smollett issuing orders. The "Hispaniola" was laid a couple of your permission, that's Silver. A very remarkable man." points nearer the wind, and now sailed

"He'd look remarkably well from a yard-arm, sir," returned the captain. "But this is talk: this don't lead to anything. I see three or four points, and with Mr. Trelawney's permission I'll

"I have, sir," said Silver. "I've wa-"You, sir, are the captain. It is for tered there with a trader I was cook you to speak," said Mr. Trelawney, The anchorage is on the south, begrandly. "First point," began Mr. Smollett. and an islet, I fancy?" asked the cap-

"We must go on, because we can't turn back. If I give the word to turn about they would rise at once. Second point, it. It were a main place for pirates once, and a hand we had on board we have time before us-at least until this treasure's found. Third point, there are faithful hands. Now sir it's got to come to blows, sooner or later: and what'I propose is to take time by the forelock, as the saying is, and come sen, sir. But the main—that's the big 'un, with the cloud on it—they usually to blows some fine day when they least expect it. We can count, I take it, calls the Spy-glass, by reason of a look-out they kept when they was in the lawney?" on your own home servants, Mr. Trerage cleaning; for it's there they selves make seven, counting Hawkins here. Now about the honest hands?" Long John's eyes burned in his head "Most likely Trelawney's own men." ok the chart; but, by the fresh said the doctor; "those he picked up for ook of the paper, I knew he was loomed to disappointment. This was himself before he lit on Silver." doomed to disappointment. This was not the map we found in Billy Bones' "Nay," replied the squire, "Hands was one of mine."

"As upon myself," declared the their ships, sir, asking your squire.

"I did think I could have trusted Hands," added the captain. "And to think that they're all Englishmen!" broke out the squire. "Sir, I could find it ir my heart to blow the "Well, gentlemen," said the captain "the best that I can say is not much. to be sure; and very prettily drawed We must lay to, if you please, and keep out. Who might have done that, I a bright lookout. It's trying on a man er? The pirates were too igno- I know. It would be pleasanter to come to blows. But there's no help for Kidd's anchorage'—just the name my it till we know our men. Lay to, and shipmate called it. There's a strong whistle for a wind, that's my view."

"Jim here," said the doctor, "can help way nor'ard up the west coast. Right us more than anyone. The men ras, sir," says he, "to haul your are not shy with him, and Jim is a noand and keep the weather of the ticing lad."

slage Leastways, if such was your "Hawkins, I put predigious faith in on as to enter and careen, and you," added the squirk. there ain't no better place for that in these waters." I began to feel pretty desperate at this, for I felt altogether helpless; and Thank you, my man," says Capt. yet, by an odd train of circumstances, mollett. "Ill ask you, later on, to it was indeed through me that safety came. In the meantime, talk as we I was surprised at the coolness with pleased, there were only seven out of the John avowed his knowledge of the 26 on whom we knew we could rethe island; and I own I was half fright- ly; and out of these seven one was a eard when I saw him drawing nearer boy, so that the grown men on our side myself. He did not know, to be sure, were six to their 19.

> PART III. MY SHORE ADVENTURE.

CHAPTER XIII. HOW I BEGAN MY SHORE ADVEN-TURE.

"Ab," says he, "this here is a sweet ot, this island—a sweet spot for a lad The appearance of the island when get ashore on. You'll bathe, and came on deck next morning was altogether changed. Although the breeze had now utterly failed, we had made a great deal of way during the Tay. It makes me young again. I night, and were now lying becalmed as going to forget my timber leg. I about half a mile to the southeast of the low eastern coast. Gray-colored woods covered a large part of the surthat. When you want to go a bit face. This even tint was indeed exploring, you just ask old John, and ell put up a snack for you to take broken up by streaks of yellow sandbreak in the lower lands, and by many tall trees of the pine family, out-top-And clapping me in the friendliest way upon the shoulder, he hobbled off forward and went below. ping the others-some singly, some in clumps; but the general coloring was uniform and sad. The hills ran up clear above the vegetation in spires of Livesey were talking together on the quarter-deck; and, anxious as I was to tell them my story, I duret not intershaped, and the Spy-glass, which was by 300 or 400 feet the tallest on the apt them openly. While I was still noting about in my thoughts to find ome probable excuse, Dr. Livesey alled me to his side. He had left him the below, and, being a slave to tobaco, had meant that I should fetch it; island, was likewise the strangest in configuration, running up sheer from almost every side, and then suddenly cut off at the top like a pedestal to put a statue on. The "Hispaniola" was rolling scuppers under in the ocean swell. booms were tearing at the blocks, the rudder was banging to and fro, and the whole ship creaking, groaning, and eling tight to the backstay, and the world turned giddily before my eyes; for though I was a good enough sailor when there was way on, this standing still and being rolled about like a bot-Thank you, Jim," said he, quite still and being rolled about the was all I wanted to the was a thing I never learned to stand without a qualm or so, above all in the without a qualm or so, above all in the norning, on an empty stomach. Perhaps it was this-perhaps it was the look of the island, with its gray, melancholy woods, and wild stone spires, and the surf that we could both see and hear foaming and thundering on the steep beach—at least, althoug see and hear foaming and thundering on the steep beach—at least, although that I heard was the captain givered to Jeb Anderson, and all around us, and you would have thought around us, and you would have thought anyone would have been glad to get to land. "It's land after being so long at sea, my beart sunk, as the saying is, into my books; and from that first look onward, phone?—Chicago News.

a very open-handed gentleman, as we all know, has just asked me a word or We had a dreary morning's work be two, and as I was able to tell him that fore us, for there was no sign of any every man on board had done his duty, wind, and the boats had to be got out and manned, and the ship warped three done better, why, he and I and the or four miles round the corner of the doctor are going below to the cabin to island, and up the narrow passage to drink your health and luck, and you'll the haven behind Skeleton island. have grog served out for you to drink volunteered for one of the boats, where our health and luck. I'll tell you what I had, of course, no business. The I think of this: I think it handsome. heat was sweltering, and the men And if you think as I do you'll give grumbled fiercely over their work, good sea cheer for the gentleman that Anderson was in command of my boat, and instead of keeping the crew in order, he grumbled as loud as the worst.

ter of course; but it rang out so full and hearty that I confess I could hard-"Well," he said, with an oath, "it's ly believe these same men were plotnot forever."

I thought this was a very bad sign; "One more cheer for Cap'n Smollett," for, up to that day, the men had gone cried Long John, when the first had briskly and willingly about their business; but the very sight of the island had relaxed the cords of discipline. And this also was given with a will, On the top of that the three gentle-All the way in, Long John stood by the steersman and conned the ship. men went below, and not long after word was sent forward that Jim

He knew the passage like the palm of chains got everywhere more water than was down in the chart, John never "There's a strong scour with the ebb," he said, "and this here passage was agitated. The stern window was has been dug out, in a manner of speaking, with a spade."

We brought up just where the an-chor was in the chart, about a third of a mile from either shore, the mainland on one side, and Skeleton Island on the other. The bottom was clean sand. The plunge of our anchor sent up clouds of birds wheeling and crying of Silver's conversation. Nobody in- over the woods; but in less than a minterrupted me till it was done, nor did ute they were all down again, and all was once more silent. The place was entirely land-locked, buried in woods, the trees coming right down to high water mark, the shores mostly flat, and the hill-tops standing round at a distance in a sort of amphitheater, one here, one there. Two little rivers, or, rather, two swamps emptied out into this pond, as you night call it; and the foliage round that part of the shore had a kind of poisonous brightness. From the ship. we could see nothing of the house or stockade, for they were quite buried mong trees; and if it had not been for the chart on the companion, we might have been the first that had ever anchored there since the island arose out of the seas. There was not a breath of air mov ing, nor a sound but that of the surf ooming half a mile away along the beaches and against the rocks outside. A peculiar stagnant smell hung over the auchorage - a smell of sodden leaves and rotten tree trunks. I observed the doctor sniffing, and sniffing. like some one tasting a bad egg.

"I don't know about treasure," he said, "but I'll stake my wig there's fever here."

If the conduct of the men had been alarming in the boat, it became truly threatening when they had come aboard. They lay about the deck growling together in talk. The slightest order was received with a black look, and grudgingly and carelessly obeyed. Even the honest hands must have caught the infection, for there was not one man aboard to mend another. Mutiny, it was plain, hung over us like a thunder-cloud.

And it was not only we of the cabin party who perceived the danger. Long John was hard at work going from group to group, spending himself in good advice, and as for example no man could have shown a better. He fairly outstripped himself in willingness and If an order were given, John would be cheeriest "Ay, ay, sir!" in the world; and when there was nothing else to do, he kept up one song after another. as if to conceal the discontent of the

Of all the gloomy features of that gloomy afternoon, this obvious anxiety on the part of Long John appeared the

We held a council in the cabin. "Sir," said the captain, "if I risk another order, the whole ship'll come bout our ears by the run. You see, sir, here it is. I get a rough answer, do I not? Well, if I speak back, pikes will be going in two shakes; if I don't, Silver will see there's something under that, and the game's up. Now, we've only one man to rely on.

"And who is that?" asked the squire. "Silver, sir," returned the captain; 'he's as anxious as you and I to smother things up. This is a tiff; he'd soon talk em out of it if he had the chance, and what I propose to do is to give him the hance. Let's allow the men an afternoon ashore. If they all go, why, we'll fight the ship. If they none of them go, well, then, we hold the cabin, and God defend the right. If some go, you mark my words, air, Silver'll bring 'aboard again as mild as lambs."

It was so decided; loaded pistols rere served out to all the sure men; Hunter, Joyce and Redruth were taken into our confidence, and received the news with less surprise and a better the captain went on deck and addressed

"My lads," said he, "we've had a hot day, and are all tired and out of sorts. A turn ashore'll hurt nobody-the boats are still in the water; you can take the gigs, and as many as please can go ashore for the afternoon. I'll fire a gun half an hour before sun-

I believe the silly fellows must have hought they would break their shins over the treasure as soon as they were landed; for they all came out of their sulks in a moment, and gave a cheer and sent the birds once more flying and squalling round the anchorage.

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

"Don't eat that," cried an officer to soldier who was trying to eat a persimmon one day during the "short ration campaign" that ended in the capture of Atlanta. "Don't eat that," he repeated, "it's not good for you." "I'm not eating it," replied the man, trying to pucker up my stomach with Il, air."-Military Gazette.

Judicial Definition of Love. A certain learned judge in New York (all judges are learned) handed down this opinion the other day, along with ome sage counsel to a poor man who had been contemplating the illegal act known as felo de se, or self-slaughter: 'Don't get so melancholy and love-sick bout a woman," said the judge, speak ing as one having experience and authority. "There are others. Love toesn't amount to much when you sift

An Excellent Authority. Mr. Dolley-Miss Tenspot called me puppy, doncher know. Mr. Trivvet-Well, Miss Tenspot is good judge of dogs.-Up-to-Date. Talks Through His Hat.

Smith-I wear out six hats ever

Jones-Why don't you per

Goodness a Rebuke to Those Inclined Toward Ungodliness. Not an Ace dent-Friendly Men Will by Rev. Dr. Talmage. Dr. Talmage in this sermon show be a matter of intelligent selection, Text: Proverbs xviii., 24, "A man that bath friends must show himself friend

Have Many Friends Sermon

mak ag and keeping friends I speak thought it of enough importance to on in the season for a quail to whistle put in the middle of the Bible, these writings of Solomon, bounded on one side by the popular Psalms of David. and on the other by the writings of Isaiah, the greatest of the prophets. It seems all a matter of haphazard his hand; and though the man in the how many friends we have, or whether we have any friends at all, but there is nothing accidental about it. There is a law which governs the accretion up from the grass.

for the additions which the spirit of

upon the storet then I will take off on not heard his side of the story at all,

and for that reason I take off the re-

But there comes in a defective max im, so often quoted! "Where there is so much smoke there must be some fire. Look at all the smoke for years around Jenner, the introducer of vaclumbus, the discoverert and the smoke

rola, and Galilee, and Paul, and John.

and tell me where was the fire! That smoke without fire. Slander like the

If the Christian, fair-minded, common and lion, cow and leopard lying down

Man, and the seas dash against all lovely place than that Isle of edes of it, and I am told there is no

Man; but when a man becomes insular

a his disposition, and cuts himself off around him is an Atlantic ocean of hath friends must show himself friendly." Fulfill this by all forms of approthat the head is so poised that the easiest thing on earth is to give a nod of side to side, as when it is wagged in derision, is unnatural and unpleasant:

to throw it back invites vertigo; but to drop the chin in greeting is ac-

that all day long, and every day,

you might practice it without the least semblance of fatigue. So, also, the structure of the hand indicates hand shaking; the knuckles not made so that the fingers can turn out, but so in clasping hands; and the thumb divided from and set aloft from the fingers, so that while the fingers take your neighbor's hand on one side, the pressed together, all the facilities of

Besides this, every day when you man or woman does well, tell him so, tell her so. It you meet some one who hausted, do not introduce sanitary subjects, or say anything at all salute, we would begin to examine ou symptoms. After meeting the second we did not feel quite as well as usual.

After meeting the third our sensations

the fourth, unless we suspected a con-gloomy accosting we would conclude words given another impulse

sions, and kind greetings.

the hand give emphasis to the saluta-and dispersion of friendships. They did not "just happen so" any more than the tides just happen to rise or fall, or the sun just haprens to rise or per cent, from the fact that the man set. It is a science, an art, a God-given of overpowering temptation. So I regulation.

ers, and I will tell you how friendly others are to you. I do not say you will not have enemies; indeed, the best maining 25 per cent. Excuse me, sir, way to get ardent friends is to have ardent enemies, if you get their enmity in doing the right thing. Good men and women will always have enemies, because their goodness is a perpetual rebuke to evin; but this antagmism of fees will make more intens: the love of your retherents. Your friends will gather closer around you because of the attacks of your assail. ants. The more your enemies abuse you the better your coadjutors will think of you.

Tell me how friendly you are to oth-

The best friends we have ever had world, may be made out of nothing. appeared at some juncture when we were especially bombarded. There have been times in me life when unhave been times in my life when unjust assault multiplied my friends, as near as I could calculate, about fifty a weeks, for would not that be lamb minute. You are bound to some people by many cords that neither time nor eternity can break, and I will nor eternity can break, and I will warrant that many of those cords were twisted by hands malevolent. Human nature was shippedwrecked. This is the way the world talks: I about fifty-nine centuries ago, the captain of that craft, one Adam, and his first mate running the famous cargo aground on a suag in the river Hiddekel; but there was at least one good trait of human nature that waded safely ashore from that shipwreck, and that is the disposition to take the part of those unfairly dealt with When it is thoroughly demonstrated that some one is being prosecuted, al-though at the start slanderous tongues were busy enough, defenders finally gather around as thick as honey bees on a trellis of bruised honesuckle. If, when set upon by the furies, you can have grace enough to keep your mouth shut, and preserve your equipoise, and let others fight your battles, you will find yourself after awhile with a whole cordon of allies. Had not the world given to Christ on his other bolt to the door that shuts them strival at Palestine a very cold shoulder, there would not have been onehalf as many angels chanting glory out of the hymn books of the sky. bound in black lids of midnight. Had t not been for the heavy and jagged Western hemisphere. Instead, there fore, of giving up in despair because you have enemies, rejoice in the fact that they rully for you the most help ful and enthusiastic add ges. In alth er words, there is no virulence that can hinder my text from coming true "A man that bath friends must show himself friendly."

It is my ambition to project especially upon the young a thought which may benignly shape their destiny for the here and the hereafter. Before you show yourself friendly you must be friendly. I do not recommend dramatized geniality. There is such to practice my text. "A man that thing as pretending to be en rapport with others, when we are their dire destructants, and talk against priate salutation. Have you noticed them, and wish them calamity. Judas covered up his treachery by a resound ing kiss, and caresses may be demon-Better the mythological Cerber us, the three-headed dog of hell, barking at us, than the wolf in sheep's clothing, its brindled hide covered up by deceptive wool, and its deathful howl cadenced into an innocent bleating. Disraeli writes of Lord Manfred, who, after committing many outrage upon the people, seemed suddenly to ome friendly, and invited them to a banquet. After most of the course of food had been served he blew a horn, which was in those times a signal for the servants to bring on the dessert, but in this case it was the signal for assassins to enter and slay the guests. His pretended friendliness thumb takes it on the other, and, was a cruel fraud; and there are now people whose smile is a falsehood.

Before you begin to show yourself tion. Five sermons in every healthy friendly you must be friendly. Get hand urge us to hand shaking. your heart right with God and man, and this grace will become easy. You start out, load yourself up with kind may by your own resolution thoughts, kind words, kind expresmay by your own resolution get your nature into a semblance of this virtue, but the grace of God can sublimely lift it into it. Sailing on the Thames two vessels ran is improved in health, and it is demonaground. The owners of one got 100 strated in girth and color, say: 'How orses and pulled on the grounded well you look!" But if, on the other ship, and pulled it to pieces. The own-ers of the other grounded vessel wait-of life he appears pale and exed until the tides came in, and easily floated the ship out of trouble. So we may pull and haul at our grounded about physical condition. In the case of human nature and try to get it into improved health, you have by your better condition; but there is nothing like the oceanic tides of God's the robust and the jocund; while in uplifting , grace. If, when under the case of the failing health you have the flash of the Holy Ghost, we see arrested the decline by your silence, our own foibles and defects and depravities, we will be very lenient, and really so badly off he would have said very easy with others. We will look something about it." We are all, into their characters for things com- especially those of a nervous temmendatory, and not damnatory. If perment, susceptible to kind words you would rub your own eye a little and discouraging words. Form a more vigorously you would find a mote conspiracy against us and let ten in it, the extraction of which would men met us at certain points on our keep you so busy you would not have way over to business, and let each one time to shoulder your broadax say, "How sick you look!" though we and go forth and split up the beam in should start out well, after meeting your neighbor's eye. In a Christian the first and hearing his depressing will find something in them fit for a foundation of friendliness. You invite me to come to your counyou! I arrive about noon of a beautiful summer day. What do you do? As spiracy, we would go home and go soon as I arrive you take me out under to bed and the other six pessimists the shadow of the great elms. You take me down to the artificial lake, the agement. spotted trout floating in and out among the white pillars of the pond-You take me to the stalls and kennels where you keep your fine stock, and here are the Durham cattle and the Gordon setters, and the highstepping steeds, by pawing and neighing, the only language they can speak. a short turn down the road. and you get me in the right light, and show me the Kensetts spirit keep on exploring the character of those you meet, and I am sure you bay window answering the robins in see that, and when we look up no colthe tree tops. Thank you! I never or can do its harm. Why not plant enjoyed myself more in the same along the raths of others the bright length of time. Now, why, why do nesses bistead of the gloom? we not do so with the characters of Do not prophesy misfortune.

others, and show the bloom and the you must be a prophet at all, music and the bright fountains? No. Ez-kiel, and hot a Jeremiah. In a re-We say: "Come along and let me show clent times prophets who foretold evils you that man's character. Here is a were doing right, for they were d. green-sellmmed frog pand; and there's | vincly directed, but the prophets of a filthy cellar, and I guess under that evil in our time are generally false hedge there must be a blacksnake. prophets. Some of our weather Come, and let us for an hour or two wise people prophesied we would regale ourselves with the nuisances." have a summer of unparalleled heat Oh, my friends, better cover up the It has been a very comfortable sumfaults and extol the virtues; and this mer. Last fall all the weather prophhabit once established of universal ets agreed in saying we should friendliness will become as easy as it have a winter of extraordinary severfriendliness will become as easy as it a subject on which I never heard of a subject on which I never heard of sweetness as easy as it will be further It was the mildest winter I ever remember to have passed. Indeed the When we hear autumn and the spring almost shoved something bad about somebody whom winter out of the procession. Real troubles have no heralds running ahead of their somber chario's, and we aiways supposed to be good, take out your lead pencil and say: "Let me no one has any authority in our time Before I accept that baleful story against that man's character to announce their coming. Load I will take off from it 25 per cent. courselves up with honeful words and for the habit of exaggeration which The hymn once sung in our belongs to the man who first told the churches is unfit to be sun; for it story; then I will take off 25 per cent.

> Where we possess delight."
> In other words, manage to keep gossip in every community has put niserable all the time. The old song ung at the pianos a quarter of a century ago was right: "Kind words have taken off 75 per cent. But I have can never die." Such kind words ave their nests in kind hearts, and when they are hatched out and take wing they circle around in flights that never cease, and sportsman's gun can not shoot them, and storms can not ruffle their wings, and when they cease flight in these lower skies of earth they sweep around amid the higher altitudes of heaven. At Baltimore I talked into a phonograph. cination; and the smoke around Co-The cylinder containing the words was sent on to Washington, and the next around Martin Luther, and Savonaday that cylinder from another pho graphic instrument, when turned is one of the satanie arts to make gave back to me the very words I uttered the day before, and with the same intonations. Scold to a phonograph and it will scold Pour mild words into a phonograph and it will return the gentleiess. Society and the world and have the millenium in about six the church are phonographs. Give them acerbity and rough treatment and accrebity and rough treatment you vill get back. Give them practical

We should suspect some danger near,"

together? Nothing but the grace of God can ever put us into such a habit friendliness and they will give back practical friendliness. A father asked is little daughter: "Mary, why is it that everybody loves you?" She answered: "I don't know, unless it is put my name on the back of a man's note, and I had to pay it, and I will because I love everybody." "A man that hath friends must show himself never again put my name on the back of any man's note. I gave a beggar 10 riendly. cents, and five minutes after I saw We want something like that spirit him entering a liquor store to spend of sacrifice for other, which was seen it. I will never again give a cent to a in the English channel, where in the beggar. I helped that young man torm a boat containing three men was start in business, and lo, after a while, upset, and all three were in the water he came and opened a store almost next struggling for their lives. A boat door to me, and stole my customers. I came to their relief, and a rope was thrown to one of them, and he refused to take it. saywill never again help a young man to start in bosiness. I trusted in what my neighbor promised to do, and he ng: "First fling it to Tom; he is broke his word, and the Psalmist was just ready to go down. I can last some ime longer." A man like that, be he sailor or landsman, be he in upper anks of society or lower ranks, will lways have plenty of friends. What is true manward is true Godward. We must be the friends of God if we want Him to be our friend. We can not treat Christ badly all our lives and expect Him to treat us lovingly. I was read-ing of a sea fight in which Lord Nel-right before he corrected himself, for 'all men are liars." So men become suspicious and saturnine and selfish. and at every additional wrong done them they put another layer on the wall of their exclusiveness, and anout from sympathy with the world. They get cheated out of a thousand dollars, or misinterpreted, or disap-pointed, or betrayed, and higher sen captured a French frigate, and when the French officer offered Lord gors the wall, and faster goes another bolt, not realizing that while Nelson his hand, Nelson replied: "First they lock others out they lock themhave been the admired and loved of selves in; and some day they wake up give me your sword, and then give me more people than any being who ever to find themselves imprisoned in a ance to God must precede God's proffe: others are no friends to them. There's forgiveness. You must give up your an island halfway between England. rebellious sword before you can get a cotland and Ireland called the Isle of grasp on the Divine hand

> INTERESTING ITEMS. A Kansas man was sentenced to six years in the penitentiary for stealing from the main land of the world's sympathies, he is despicable, and all selfishness. Behold that Isle of Man. ionaries in China has been reporte Now, supposing that you have, by a to the United States consul at Shang-Divine regneration, got right toward God and humanity, and you start out IT will cost $77,000,000 to run Nev York a year, or more than it costs to run Chicago, Philadelphia, Baltimore Washington, Cincinnati and Buffalo. Ir has been calculated that ordinary gun-powder, on exploding, expan is about 9,000 times, or fills a space this recognition? To swing the head from much larger as a gas than when in solid form.

> THE greatest pilgrimage to the Holy Land are undertaken by the Russians It has been calculated that between 30,000 and 40,000 Russians visit Pales tine every year.

Biscuits made of 100 parts of wheat flour, 33 parts of gluten and a small quantity of fat, then dried in an over that the fingers can turn out, but so and smeared with sugar sirup, is now made that the fingers can turn in, as part of the French soldiers' rations. SAN FRANCISCO now has a law by

A GERMAN biologist has calculate that the human brain contains 300, 000,000 nerve cells, 5,000,000 of which die and are succeeded by new ones every day. At this rate we get an entirely new brain every 60 days. PRIVATE J. F. FINLEY, of the 1st Calfornia, who carried ammunition to the 10th Pennsylvania during the battle at Malate, making several trips over a field swept by the Spanish fire. s half-Spanish and is 24 years old. In one street of Brunswick, Me., are the homesteads where Longfellow Tom's Cabin," J. S. C. Abbott "A H story of Napoleon Bonaparte," Prof. Cleveland his "Minerology," and Prof. Tpham his "Moral and Mental Philos dark-room for photographs, formed of a small folding box, which has a number of nonactinic panes of glass in the sides and top, with elastic sleeves through which the operator manipumounted on a tripod when in use.

Ir may not be generally known that erable ability. When he was an attache of the Spanish legation in Washington, during the days of President Grant's administration, he was noted for his fine voice, and frequently entertained his friends that way. was the author of several little love songs, which were published in this country as well as in Spain, and at that time could be found in the portfolios of many music rooms in Wash

DR. ANITA NEWCOMB MCGEE, who has would be a useless surplus of discourbeen appointed a member of the med ical staff of the United States army, is do you mean by going about this the wife of Prof. W. J. Metiee, of world with disheartenments? Is not Washington, D. C., and daughter of the supply of gloom and trouble and Prof. Simon Newcomb, formerly of the misfortune amough to meet the demand | naval observatory. Dr. McGee served without your running a factory of pins for two years on the staff of the John and spikes? Why should you plant Hopkins hospital, and as she has been black and blue in the world when God at the head of the work of selecting all asking for harness saddle and so seidom plants them? Plenty of scar- trained nurses as sent out through the let colors, plenty of yellow, plenty of government and through the D. A. R. green, plenty of pink, but seldom a hospital corps, with headquarters i lant black or blue. I never saw a Washington, D. C. She is now a light, and show me the Kensetts black flower, and there's only here and the Bierstadts on the wall, and there a bluebell or a violet, but the first woman in America to hold a take me into the music room and show | blue is for the most part reserved for | military position.

been salling to. Mr. Trelawney, being I hated the very thought of Treasure | BOUND TO HAVE ENEMIES | me the bird cages, the canaries in the | the sky, and we have to look up to | EMPRESS DEAD.

Elizabeth, of Austria, Stabbed to the Heart by an Anarchist in Geneva.

he Staggered to Her Feet and Started for the Boat, Belleving Herself Unhurt-On Reaching the Vessei She Fainted and Expired.

GENEVA, Switzerland, Sept. 12,-En press Elizabeth of Austria had been here a few days and was leaving Gen eva for Montreaux, where she in tended to stay for some time. She left her hotel for the steamboa at 12:45 p. m. On her way from the hotel to the pier she was assaulted by a man, who rushed up to her and struck her. The empress feil, but struck her. The empress fell, but staggered to her feet and started on again for the boat, believing herself unhurt. She reached the steamer, which the captain, after some hesitation, ordered to proceed, only doing so, however, at the command of her majesty.

Shortly after the boat put off the empress fainted and the steamer returned to the pier. Her majesty was taken ashore at once and carried to her hotel, where she expired a little later without regaining consciousness. It was then found she had been stabbed and that the assassin's stiletto had reached her heart. The assassin was arrested, and proved to be an Italian anarchist named Luccheni, who said that he was born in Paris.

The news of the murder of the empress spread rapidly through the city, When the minister finally left, him be press spread rapidly through the city, almost stupefying the people with LONDON, Sept. 12.-The story of the assassination of the empress of Austria reached here through the Paris office of the Havas news agency. The French foreign office confirms the report of the assassination of the em press of Austria.

VIENNA, Sept. 12.-The plans for the funeral of the late Empress Elizabeth, who was assassinated by an anarchist Saturday at Geneva, contemplate bringing the remains to Vienna next Thursday, a lying-in-state on Friday and the obsequies of interment on Saturday.

Every flag in the city was at half mast Sunday, and the theaters, races and other amusements are suspended indefinitely. All the archdukes and the Arch tion are still the greater owing to the foul crime having been committed on Swis, territory, where the departed, as she had often done before, was seeking recovery from bodily sufferings, which recovery, as on previous occasions, she had every hope of finding. "The council hastens to assure your majesty, at the same time of its own whole Swiss people in the irreparable loss your majesty, the imperial house and the peoples of Austria and Hungary have suffered through your exalted lady's death." The flag on the federal building i at half-mast. The council reassembled Sunday afternoon to receive re ports regarding the crime and to consider the steps te be taken. It is expected that the judicial authorities of the Canton of Vaud will conduct the inquiry and the trial.

GENEVA, Sept. 12.-The autopsy showed that the lung as well as the heart was pierced.

No strangers are allowed to approach the coffin of the murdered Empres El zabeth. The body is embalmed and is dressed in white.

The doctors photographed the round, but the plate will be destroyed. It is understood that Emperor Francis Joseph will not leave Austria, but will send high court officials to take the body to Vienna. Flowers are crriving in profusion. The assassin maintains his cynical demeanor and frankly congratulates himself on the success of his crime He says:

which a peddler who rings a door bell no committee. I acted on my own in of a hous: where the sign "no peddlers" is displayed is liable to a fine of dlers" is displayed is liable to a fine of with me. That is my strength."

NEVER INTERIOR

Sunday evening in the passage of a house on the Rue des Alpes has been identified by the assassin as the weapon he used. His name, though heretofore vari ously given and published here as Lac-cheni, Lucchesi and Luccessi, is now said to be Luigini.

"Teddy" Will Accept

NEW YORK, Sept. 12 -Col. Theodor loosevelt has authorized the announce ment that he will accept the nomina tion for the governor of New York should it be tendered to him by the convention of the party to be held at Saratoga.

Rev. Dr. Albert & Hunt Dead. NEW YORK, Sept. 12-Rev. Dr. Al bert S. Hunt, for 20 years secretary of the American Bible society, died Sunday at his home in Brooklyn of bron chitis, aged 72 years.

Wife-Murder and Suicide WYANDOTTE, Mich., Sept. 12 -- While in a fit of drunken jeslous rage Sunday Ezekiel Lazette, aged 45, shot and instantly killed his wife, and then turned the revolver on himself, inflicting a wound from which he died in ar hour.

PARIS, Sept. 12.—It is asserted that f the cabinet still insists upon a rerision of the Drevfus case Gen. Surling len, minister of war, and M. Lockrov. minister of marine, will resign.

The Boyd Murder Case. CAMBRIDGE, O., Sept. 12.—The coron er began the inquest Saturday in the Boyd murder case, but nothing new was brought forth. He will continue it Monday. Law still refuses to talk about the case.

Counterfelt Quarters DILLEBORO, Ind., Sept. 12 - Severa counterfeit silver quarters have been circulated among the merchants here The quarters are very poor in appearance, and the ring is dull Most of them tear the date of 1894.

STATE STATE OF THE PARTY NAMED IN

Scrofula

later may break out in hip di cure scrofula or prevent it, thoroughly purify your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has a continually growing record of Hood's Sarsadeals Classical Medicine. 81: six for 85.

Hood's Pills cure indigestion, biliousness

FUNNY THING IN SPELLING.

Learning to Manipulate a Typewrite Gets a Man Into a Queer

A Cleveland man has set about learning

write a special paper of the pa

New Mother-in-Law Story.

A Cleveland man who went east to spend his vacation brought home with him what he thinks is a new mother-in-law story. Mother-in-law stories are a drug on the market, but this one seems to be a little less druggy than usual. A man and his wife went to than usual. A man and his wife went to Europe and the man's mother-in-law wentalong. Up to this point there is no novelty in the story. On the voyage the mother-inlaw fell ill and died. Of course she had to be buried at sea, and so the usual canvas sack was made, but instead of an iron weight to sink the body they used a big bag of coal. In commenting on the arrangements afterward the bereaved son-in-law, who stuttered badly, said: "I-aiways knew where m-m-m mother-in-law was g going, but b-b-blame mo if I s-s-supposed she d have to carry her own f-f-fuel."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

All the archdukes and the Archduches Marie Valerie have arrived at Schoenbrunn.

Berne, Switzerland, Sept. 12.—The federal council met Monday morning and sent the following telegram to Emperor Francis Joseph:

'The Swiss federal council has the honor to express to your majesty its profoundest grief and deepest indignation at the horrible crime to which Her Majesty Empress Elizabeth has fallen victim. Our pain and indignation are still the greater owing to the

Touching Kindness

The bronzed soldier looked at the package addressed to him with moissened eyes. "Blessed angels," he said; they do not forget us." Then he carefully took off the wrappings and found: A nail brush, an ornamental hair receiver, a pair of tidies, a small bottle of mixed pickles, a tract, a bandpainted blotting pad and a pants stretcher.—Cleveland Plain Dealer. Thirty-Five Thousand Miles

There is enough calico made in the United States every year to make a sash which would go completely around the earth with 10,000 miles of material left for a how. The great popularity of this fabric is justified by the fact that the goods known as Simpson a Prints are of the highest standard of quality and finish. The colors are absolutely fast and will not fade nor will the goods become limp with washing and wringing, and as the material is cheap and exceedingly pretty, there is little wonder that many millions of yards are used annually in the dreams of women and children.

No Cause for Jeniousy. Mrs. Benham—Don't you really care any-thing about mother? Benham—Well, not enough to make you jealous.—N. Y. Journal.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Al druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c When a worthless man isn't staring at the clock he is gazing at the Atchison Globe.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific process known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRU Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALI-FORMIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its rem far in advance of all other laxative as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or wea

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. NEW YORK, N. T.

ing them, and it does not gripe nor useate. In order to get its be ffects, please remember the nan

... CURE CONSTIPATION. ...